ON TRIUMPHAL MARCH.

Americans Clearing Morong Peninsula of the Enemy.

TWO ENGAGEMENTS FOUGHT.

General Hall's Men Take Part In One of Especial Severity.

INSURGENTS LOSE BOTH FIGHTS.

Brilliant Dash Made Up a Mountain Side In the Very Face of a Galling Fire From the Foe Hiding in the Fastnesses Thereof.

Manila, June 5.—General Hall's column, in the movement upon the Morong peninsula, completed the circuit of twenty miles over rough and mountainous country, having two engagements with the insurgents, one of them severe, and keeping up an almost constant fire against scattered bands of Filipinos for nearly 24 hours.

The enemy were driven in every direction and the country through which General Hall passed was pretty thoroughly cleared. The column reached a point a few miles from Taytay, where General Hall was met by General Lawton, who had already entered the town and found it deserted.

General Hall's objective point was Antipolo, ten miles off, and there was desultory firing all along the line of march. The gunboats could be heard shelling the hills in advance of the column. The column, after driving the rebels from the foothills near Maria Chino, with a loss of but two or three, slightly wounded, proceeded with all possible haste toward Laguna de Bay, the Fourth cavalry in the lead, the Oregon regiment next and the Fourth infantry last.

Late in the afternoon those three regiments fought their second battle of the day, and it resulted like the first, in the complete rout of a large Filipino force located in the mountains, and having every advantage of position. In this fight the American loss was four killed, three of the Fourth cavalry and one Oregonian, and about 15 wounded. The Filipino loss could not be ascertained, but the terrific fire, which the Americans poured into them for half an hour must have inflicted severe punishment. In this engagement our troops made one of the most gallant charges of the war, and the enemy was forced to flee in the greatest disorder.

The troops suffered from the intense heat, many being prostrated and all greatly exhausted. Consequently they bivouacked for the night on the second battle field.

The cavalry, the Oregonians and two companies of the Fourth infantry had just crossed a small creek about five o'clock in the afternoon and entered upon a sunken road, from which they were emerging upon a small valley surrounded on all sides by high and heavily wooded hills, when the natives, concealed in the mountains on the three sides of the plain, opened a hot fire and sent showers of bullets into the ranks of the Americans. The latter deployed immediately in three directions.

Then followed a charge across the rice fields and ditches and up the hill-sides, from which the shots came all the time, pouring in a terrific hail, while the air resounded with the constant rattle of musketry. The Fourth cavalry, being in front, suffered the severest loss when the attack opened, two of their killed being sergeants, and the other a private. The Oregonian killed was a private.

The natives were unable to stand the vigorous firing of the Americans long; and at the first sign of their wavering, the cavalry, Oregonians and Fourth infantrymen broke into wild cheers and charged still faster up the hillside, pouring in volley after volley until the enemy left the places where they were partially concealed by the thicket, fled over the summit in the wildest confusion and disappeared in the surrounding valleys.

After the fight was over the firing was continued by the Americans for more than an hour in clearing out the bush and driving away straggling Filipinos.

The troops, after camping for the night on the battle field, started in the morning for Antipolo, where it was expected a strong resistance would be made. Antipolo is a place far up in the mountains, which the Spaniards had said the Americans could never capture. It has cost Spain the lives of 800 troops.

The progress of the column was considerably delayed while passing up the steep mountain grade, by a small band of insurgents; but these were effectually routed by the Fourth cavalry, which was in advance, and the troops reached Antipolo in a few hours.

Our lines were immediately thrown around on three sides of the town, and then the final advance was made. But it was found unnecessary to fire a shot. Not a rebel was visible, and the town was entirely abandoned.

Two hours later, after a conference between General Lawton and General Hall, the column proceeded toward Morong to drive away any rebels found in that quarter.

TURNED ON THE GAS.

A Mother Murders Her Two Children and Then Commits Suicide.

New York, June 5.—Mrs. Johanna Schilling, 35, and her two daughters, Gertrude, 10, and Edna, 8, were found dead in their home in a tenement. All had been asphyxiated by gas, doubtless turned on by the mother with the idea of murdering her two children and committing suicide.

The tragedy evidently grew out of a quarrel between the woman and her husband, Otto Schilling, a tailor.

A week ago they had a misunderstanding and the husband left the flat. Mrs. Schilling returned, but when a policeman attempted to arrest him, Schilling escaped over the roof of the tenement. After his second disappearance, Mrs. Schilling kept her children in their apartments. Neighbors found the body of Mrs. Schilling lying on the bed. Beside her and clasped in her mother's arms was Edna. Gertrude had evidently tried to get out of the room. Her body was lying near the door.

America's Coal Production.

Washington, June 5.—The coal production and consumption of the world during the past 15 years are presented in some tables just prepared by the treasury bureau of statistics. These show that while the United Kingdom is still the largest coal producing nation of the world, the United States is a close second, and if the present rate of gain is continued, will soon become the leading coal producing country of the world. The coal production of the United Kingdom in 1898 was 226,287,000 tons; the United States, 219,836,000.

Suspect Double Murder.

Parkersburg, W. Va., June 5.—An express train almost annihilated two men near Cherry Camp. Only four feet and three hands could be found, the trunks and skulls having disappeared. It is believed the men were Pennsylvania oil men, and that they had been robbed and murdered and placed on the track to conceal the crime.

Family's Miraculous Escape.

Rock Rapids, Ia., June 5.—A severe storm of cyclonic nature passed over Rock Rapids in a northeasterly direction. A funnel-shaped cloud dipped down to earth and picking up the Henry Hinkle house, occupied by Adolph Juergensen and family, turned it bottom upward and entirely demolished it. The family miraculously escaped.

Democratic Convention.

Springfield, O., June 5.—Chairman W. S. Thomas stated that he would call a meeting of the Democratic state central committee for Columbus, June 15, to select date and agree upon a place for the Democratic state convention. He gave it as his opinion that the convention would be held about July 15.

Woodmen of America.

Kansas City, June 5.—Delegates from all directions arrived by thousands to attend the coming gathering of the Modern Woodmen of America.

The first business session will begin Tuesday morning and the great parade, when it is expected 10,000 Woodmen will march, will take place Thursday.

Payment of Cubans.

Havana, June 5.—When the pay car arrived at Guines it was met by a large crowd and the guards had considerable work in keeping the people back. Colonel Randall made 74 payments and rejected 37 applicants. The payments made brought the total up to 417. The crowds were orderly.

Feared Mob Violence.

Atlanta, Ga., June 5.—Grant Bell, who assaulted Mrs. J. L. Lumpkin, was spirited away from here. It was reported that mobs were on the way from Rome, Cartersville and Rock Mart, and the sheriff decided to take no chances. Bell will be tried at a special term of court.

For More Pay.

East Liverpool, O., June 5.—Between 400 and 500 men in five of the largest sewer pipe and brick plants of the Toronto company are out on strike. They have been receiving $1.25 per day and demand an increase of 25 cents. They were offered a compromise but refused it.

STARVING, YET DOCILE.

Cuban General Tells of Condition of His People.

DESIRE A LOAN, NOT CHARITY

Desired For Centuries by Spaniards, It Is Only Logical That They Are Suspicious of American Intentions Now.

Havana, June 5.—General Collazo publishes in the Herald of Havana a letter expounding the Cuban idea of the situation. He says in part:

"A good deal of the discussion now in progress shows that the real situation is misunderstood. Both the Americans and the Cubans desire the independence of the island—the Americans because they are pledged to it, and the Cubans because of patriotic and political considerations. Between the two stands the Washington administration, representing the important business interests involved."

"There is no doubt that the beauty and rich possibilities of Cuba have aroused in many of our visitors a greed which is responsible for the attempt to create the notion that the country is warlike, whereas the fact is that the Cubans are so docile that even the desperation of hunger will not lead them into wrongful action."

"The offer of charity affronts the dignity of our people; and the gratuity of $3,000,000 insults them. The United States government, if it intends to free the island, should pay what is due the army, in the form of a loan to Cuba which Cubans would gladly and easily repay. We do not want gifts; and the course hitherto followed discredits the American government among us and inspires distrust. The Cubans have been deceived for four centuries, and it is only logical that they should be suspicious now. They were formerly taught that the Americans had an honest home administration which conformed strictly to law and knew no favoritism except that based upon merit."

"In practice here the Cubans see just the contrary exemplified. No one among us sees in advance the measures to be promulgated; the caprice of the military chiefs is paramount; the people are a lifeless factor, that can exert no power nor even protest except in public meetings and the press. The Cubans are starving, while hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent upon palaces for the American commanders, who apply the military or the Spanish law as their whim suggests. Charity, such as is offered, must be in any event useless, because inadequate. Cuba will not recuperate without $50,000,000 to finance her agriculturists and without paying the army what it deserves. In this way recuperation can be accomplished. All that is necessary is the will of the American administration.

Mexican Loan Negotiated.

Berlin, June 5.—A dispatch received here from Paris says the negotiations with the Mexican minister of finance, J. J. Limantour, for the conversion of the entire external debt have been concluded and that a five per cent. loan for the nominal amount of £23,000,000 guaranteed by the customs, redeemable in 45 years and incontrovertible for ten years, has been taken over by the Bielefelders, the Deutsche bank, the Dresden bank, J. P. Morgan & Co., of New York, J. S. Morgan & Co., of London, and the National bank, of Mexico. The new loan will be offered for subscription in New York.

Troops on Guard.

Lexington, Ky., June 5.—The Lexington troops, three companies, and the Gatling gun squad, started on their march from here to Manchester to keep the peace there at the Baker trial. The roads are very bad, but baggage was carried in wagons and mules drew the Gatling gun. The Whites and Howards are in Manchester heavily armed intending to kill the Bakers.

Cuban Editors Muzzled.

Santiago de Cuba, June 5.—In view of the continued publication of inflammatory editorials in the local press Governor General Brooke has issued an order directing the appointment of a press censor for Santiago. The editors are indignant but the public generally is pleased. The seditious articles have not been in any sense an expression of the general opinion.

New Organization.

Wichita, Kas., June 5.—The National Irrigation association has been reorganized here with Joseph M. Carey, of Wyoming, author of the Carey act, as president. George H. Maxwell, of California, chairman of the executive committee, and Henry M. Haelissen, of Colorado, as secretary. The association has reorganized to secure increased membership and funds with which to push its claims.

CRIME OF A BLIND MAN.

Fatally Stabs the Mother of the Woman He Admired.

Uniontown, Pa., June 5.—Mrs. Mervin Monaghan was murdered in her home while trying to protect her daughter, Mrs. Gertrude McCowan, from the attacks of Councilman McCormick. Mrs. Monaghan was stabbed in the neck by some sharp instrument, which severed the jugular vein and produced death in a few minutes. McCormick, who is blind, had been paying attentions to Mrs. McCowan and found her in the company of a young man named Difendorfer. This enraged him that he assaulted her with a water pitcher. Mrs. Monaghan, her mother, came to her rescue and McCormick drew a knife and cut her throat. He then fled, but was later arrested at his home.

Queen's Birthday Celebrated.

London, June 5.—The queen's birthday was officially celebrated in London. The chief event was the trooping of the colors on the Horseguards' parade. The immense concourse present included the United States ambassador, Mr. Joseph H. Choate and most of the prominent Americans now in this city. Most of the detachment of the Grenadier Guards, Coldstream Guards, and Scots Guards participated in the ceremony, accompanied by their massed bands. The Prince of Wales appeared in a field marshal's uniform, attended by the Duke of Connaught, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke of York, and Prince Christian of Schleswig Holstein preceded by a brilliant headquarters staff and the royal equerries.

Hold Five Requisition Papers.

New York, June 5.—When Bella Anderson, alias Carrie Jones, the nurse, was brought for examination in the justice's court at Summit Detective Sergeant Price, of the New York police force, asked that she be delivered to the New York authorities at once. The justice refused to give up the prisoner without a requisition from the New York authorities. An order was signed committing Bella Anderson to prison at Elizabeth to await the arrival of extradition papers. The prisoner would make no statement regarding her part in the Marion Clark kidnapping case.

Groundless Charges.

Washington, June 5.—The war department made public a statement containing reports received from General Otis at Manila concerning the charges preferred by relatives and friends of the enlisted men to the First Nebraska volunteers against the late Colonel John M. Stotsenberg, who commanded that regiment when he was killed. The charges embraced allegations of ill treatment of the men of the command. General Otis, under orders from the war department, had the charges investigated and according to the statement issued found them groundless.

The Correct Ticket.

Columbus, O., June 3.—Owing to the fracture of the slate several times there was considerable confusion as to the correct ticket which was nominated at the Republican state convention. The correct ticket follows: Governor George K. Nash, Columbus; Lieutenant governor, John A. Caldwell, Cincinnati; auditor of state, Walter D. Guillot, Caldwell; treasurer of state, I. B. Cameron, New Lisbon; attorney general, James M. Sheet, Ottawa; supreme judge, W. Z. Davis, Marion.

Will Cover the Bet.

Cleveland, June 5.—Alexander Winton, the automobile inventor, of this city, speaking of the deposit of 20,000 francs as forfeit by M. Charon, the winner of the French automobile races, for a 1,000 mile race with the Winton machine, says: "I am glad to see that the Frenchman means business. I shall cover his forfeit money at once. I am willing to race him either in Europe or America." The race, it is thought, will be run between New York and Chicago.

To Act as Guards.

Lexington, Ky., June 5.—One hundred picked riflemen of the First Kentucky regiment and a Gatling gun battery left by a special train for Clay county, in the mountains, to serve as a guard during the trial of Thomas Howard for murder. The troops will have a march of 24 miles. The trial may last two weeks. Howard is connected with parties to a bitter feud.

Died in a Sleeper.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 5.—Private telegrams from Pittsburgh announce that George M. Adams, 60, a wealthy manufacturer of this city died in a Pullman car on a Pennsylvania train between Columbus and Pittsburgh. He was the senior member of the firm of Adams & Williamson, veneer manufacturers. He was going to the seashore for a vacation.

Appointed to West Point.

Delaware, O., June 5.—Charles Donavin, of this city, son of George B. Donavin, late quartermaster of the Fourth regiment, O. V. I., has been appointed to a cadetship at West Point.

Injuries Proved Fatal.

Sewer Pipe Trust Off.

Steubenville, O., June 5.—Several sewer pipe manufacturers, who have returned from New York, report the trust unorganized. They say the prospects for its formation are poor.

CANED THE PRESIDENT.

Riotous Demonstrations at a Paris Race Course.

DIRECTED AGAINST LOUBET.

Committee of League of Patriots Start a Row, in Which Blows Are Exchanged, Several Injured and Many Arrested.

Paris, June 5.—President Loubet, accompanied by the premier, M. Dupuy, and the chief of the military household, General McBallou, drove to the Auteuil races Sunday afternoon. As they drove along the avenue Des Champs Elysees, the crowd bowed respectfully, but on arriving at Auteuil, they were met by a violent demonstration, evidently organized and directed against the president. There was a storm of hoots, yells and cries of "Panama," "abas Loubet," and "vive l'arme." A few shouts of "vive Loubet" were drowned in the clamor. A strong force of police kept order and arrested many of the disturbers, including a man who tried to force his way to the president's carriage.

During the second race the clamor increased to violence and was plainly directed by a committee of the league of patriots collected with their supporters both before and behind the presidential stand, around which a formidable affray proceeded. Many blows were struck, and several policemen were injured in their endeavors to prevent an invasion of the presidential stand.

At the crisis of the excitement while shouts of "vive l'arme" and "vive DeRoulede" were heard on all sides, Count Cristiano rushed toward the president, brandishing a stick and directed a blow against him, striking his hat. The crowd rushed upon Cristiano, who only escaped severe handling by being taken under police protection.

President Loubet sat all the while quite unmoved, talking to the premier, while officers of his military household were defending him against violence.

Finally, after thirty arrests had been made, the prefect of police ordered the Republican guards to surround the presidential stand. The principal leaders of the demonstration were M. Joseph Lascles, anti-Semitic and Nationalist deputy for Geers, and M. Firmin Faure, anti-Semitic and Nationalist deputy for Oran, Algeria.

Police Inspector Grilliere had his head seriously wounded in the melee; and President Loubet has since decorated him with the cross of the Legion of Honor in recognition of his devotion to duty.

A special cabinet council was summoned to consider the situation; and important measures were concerted, to be submitted to the president at another council for the preservation of order.

The ministers maintain strict reserve as to the nature of these measures; but a semi-official note as been issued, which says: "The government will act with the greatest energy and will impose respect for the president and for the state."

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Representative,
JOHN W. ALEXANDER.

For Railroad Commissioner,
A. W. HAMILTON,
of Mt. Sterling.

INDICATIONS—Partly cloudy to-day, followed by showers and cooler Tuesday; variable winds.

GENERAL TAYLOR has a big lead in the Republican race for Governor, and if Captain Sam. Stone and Judge Pratt don't wake up soon, they'll get left at the very start.

The Democratic candidates for Governor continue to "go after each other's scalps in vigorous style." This berating and abusing each other is not calculated to increase the chances of victory next fall.

The attention of Republican editors and other people who talk about trusts cheapening prices is called to the following from the Columbus (O.) Press-Post:

"If anyone desires any proof of the efficiency of the trust movement let him attempt to make a purchase of water pipe now at anything like the rates that were offered a year ago and see where he will pull up," remarked A. P. Smith, of Newark, N. J., at the Great Southern. "To-day most pipe that a year ago cost $14 will to-day cost $27, and still prices are advancing. Everywhere there is a howl, but what are you going to do when the trust holds absolute control and the people have no recourse? I shall expect to see this same question of trusts made one of the chief issues of the political campaigns of the next couple of years, and that it will cut considerable ice there is absolutely no question. The consuming public of this country is being held up, not only in the matter of water pipe, but in everything else, with a persistence that is becoming unbearable and there will of necessity sooner or later be an absolute revolt. With the Democrats fighting the trust interest with the vigor expected and the Republicans standing pat for one of the greatest evils of the day, I cannot but draw a logical conclusion that coming Democratic chances will be very good."

CORN PRODUCTS.

List of Articles Now Made From the Humble Cereal.

[New York Sun.]

The following is a list of the products now being manufactured from corn without the use of any other component material:

Mixing glucose, of three kinds, used by refiners of table sirups, brewers, leather manufacturers, jelly makers, fruit preservers and apothecaries.

Crystal glucose, of four kinds, used by manufacturing confectioners.

Grape sugar, of two kinds, used by brewers principally, and also by tanners.

Anhydrous sugar, used by ale and beer brewers and apothecaries.

Pearl starch, used by cotton and paper mills.

Powder starch, used principally by baking powder manufacturers, and also by cotton and paper mills.

Refined grits, used in the place of brewers' grits; they are giving better results.

Flourine, used by mixers of flour without detriment, except as to the feeling that a corn product is taking the place of a wheat product.

Four kinds of dextrine, used by fine fabric makers, paper box makers, mucilage and glue makers, apothecaries and many industries requiring a strong adhesive agent.

Corn oil, used by table oil mixers, lubricating oil mixers, manufacturers of fiber, shade cloth manufacturers, paint manufacturers, and in many similar industries where vegetable oils are employed.

Corn oil cake, gluten feed, chop feed and gluten meal, all cattle feeding stuffs of a very high grade and capable of being scientifically fed with superior advantages.

Rubber substitute, a substitute for crude rubber, and very extensively used.

Corn germ, the material from which the oil and cake are obtained.

British gum, a starch which makes a very adhesive medium, and is used by textile mills for running their colors, as well as by manufacturers who require a very strong adhesive medium that contains no trace of acid.

Granulated gum, which competes with gum arabic, is used successfully in its place, and finds a ready preference by reason of the absence of any offensive odor.

Probably the most important in the above list of products is rubber substitute, the substance which Chicago chemists have recently brought to perfection. This new rubber, made from the waste of ordinary yellow corn, will cheapen the price of rubber goods 25 per cent. Corn rubber must be combined with an equal quantity of Para rubber to give it general utility. Twenty chemists have been employed at the Chicago refinery for a year in bringing this new rubber to perfection.

THEY ARE HUSTLERS.

Col. J. B. Stears of the Jessamine Journal Talks of Our Street Fair—Compliments Those in Charge of it.

Speaking of his visit to the Maysville street fair, Col. J. B. Stears of the Jessamine Journal, pays a deserved compliment to the gentlemen who were in charge of it. He says: "The attractions were first-class, all of which were free. People came from adjoining counties, and it is safe to say Maysville reaped a bountiful harvest financially. The thousands of people who gathered each day were a great surprise to the business men, and the 'moss backs' who opposed the enterprise were loud in their approval of the movement before its close, and were free to say they wanted it repeated in September.

This enterprise was gotten up by two of Maysville's most enterprising young business men, Jno. I. Winter and H. B. Owens, who are hustlers from the new school of 'making a town go, and putting the old fogies on easy street, that they may die surrounded by cob-webs and green moss.' Such progressive men as Winter and Owens are what Kentucky towns need. W. H. Fremont, who assisted the committee, is getting up these fairs all over the State, and his program is well carried out."

HAND IN YOUR NAME

If You Want Work—Shoe Factory Will Need at Least 450 Hands If It is Started.

Maysville has a prospect of securing a big shoe factory, but the parties backing the enterprise must first know whether the city can furnish the number of hands required before they will take any decided steps in the matter.

They will need from 450 to 600 hands and in order to ascertain whether that many hands can be obtained here lists were opened several days ago where those who wish employment might register their names. At last accounts about 350 names had been enrolled.

Don't delay, but attend to this matter at once. If you know of any one who wants employment and who has not registered see that he or she is enrolled immediately.

Those who enroll their names will be given the preference if the factory is started.

It is not necessary to be a skilled hand; you can soon learn the work. The lists can be found at the following places:

M. C. Hutchison's grocery.
R. M. Wallingford's grocery.
T. J. Chenoweth's drugstore.
H. W. Ray's drugstore.
J. C. Pecor's drugstore.

OUR SURPRISE PARTY.

The immense trade we have enjoyed in the past sixty days has left our spring stock in a peculiar condition. Whilst we can fit every one, no matter what size is required, yet in many lots the sizes are broken. All of these lots have been separated from the regular stock. The qualities are just what you expect in our house—first-class. The materials are strictly all wool Cassimeres, Cheviots, Clay Mixtures and Tricots. Every garment made and trimmed in elegant manner; not a Suit in the lot that isn't worth $10.00; many of them sold at and are honestly worth $12. In our surprise sale they go at

THE TIGER TOBACCO TRANSPLANTER.

Makes the farmer absolutely independent of the weather. He sets his plants when he gets his ground ready, rain or shine. The superiority of the Tiger over all other Transplanters has been plainly demonstrated during seasons of severe drought, when experiments proved it to be the only machine that could be depended upon to give a good stand of plants under any and all weather conditions. With the TIGER the plants are properly set. The roots are in the puddle formed by the water, loose earth being forced down around and above the plant. In effect the water valve on the TIGER stands still at each hill long enough to pour the water precisely where it is wanted—a feature that cannot be duplicated by any machine devised by man. THE TIGER PUTS THE WATER JUST WHERE IT IS NEEDED—AT THE ROOTS. There are many superior points on the TIGER that makes it far ahead of any other Transplanter ever put on the market. We ask your inspection of same and that you place your order at once, as the factory could not supply the demand last season and we, ourselves, were only able to get a portion of our orders filled. So do not delay, but place your order with us at once, that we may be able to supply you before our stock is exhausted. Remember first come first served.

FORM STUDY AND DRAWING.

MR. JOSEPH G. FORMAN.

Exhibition of the Work of the City Schools in These Branches a Most Creditable One.

A Former Resident of Washington Died Friday Night at His Home in St. Louis.

The exhibition at the High School, Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoons, of the work of the pupils of the city schools in form study and drawing was especially interesting, and attracted a large number of visitors, though it is to be regretted that the patrons of the schools do not take more interest in this useful art.

The walls of the large room were entirely covered with specimens of work by pupils of all the schools, and while there were surprising exhibits by even six and seven-year-old tots, the efforts of the first and second year classes were very creditable, especially the specimens of mechanical and wash drawings. A few also displayed remarkable talent in designing.

In another room there was an especial display of clay modeling, and the really beautiful and artistic forms given the many pretty articles by the pupils, with no other tools than those provided by nature, is truly astonishing, and reflects great credit on Miss Stone, their teacher.

The Modern Beauty. Thrives on good food and sunshine, with plenty of exercise in the open air. Her form glows with health and her face blooms with its beauty. If her system needs the cleansing action of a laxative remedy, she uses the gentle and pleasant Syrup of Figs, made by the California Fig Syrup Company only.

The Cleveland agents will have on exhibition their full line of wheels Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Call and see.

PITHY POINTS.

Trusts are tyrants.

Trusts are worse than a direct tax on the people.

Trusts are foes of the people and friends of millionaires.

Whenever the double money standard is adopted the trusts will collapse.

There's no sense in an opposition to trusts that doesn't favor the double standard.

The man who insists that trusts are legitimate business matters ought to have a guardian.

The remonetization of silver is the only thing that will knock the wind out of the trusts.

There's no sense and less consistency in claiming to be opposed to trusts while favoring the very state of affairs that promotes and fosters trusts.

A "skull and crossbones" would be a fit device or trade mark for whisky saloons, as thereby the unwary might be warned and would proceed with their eyes open.

It remains for the party that alone and always fights the battles of the people against all kinds and forms of avarice, centralization and despotism, to crush out this vile offspring of greed and avarice.

When a boy turns his bulging pocket inside out we marvel at the quantity and variety of articles he has stowed away. Odd length of string, marbles, a horse-chestnut, a top, brass nails, hickory-nuts, an apple, and many more articles are garnered by this "snapper up of unconsidered trifles." We think the collection must be hard on a boy's pocket, and it is. But do we ever think of the variety and miscellany of the substances we put into the pocket of our stomach? There's the apple and the nuts, and things besides quite as indigestible as brass nails and with no more food value than so many marbles. And yet we wonder that the stomach "gives out." When the stomach breaks down under the strain of careless eating and irregular meals it can be perfectly and permanently restored to health by the use of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The action of this medicine on the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition is so marked that relief from disease is at once experienced, and the headaches, liver "troubles," kidney disorders, skin eruptions and other symptoms of a diseased stomach are quickly cured. Whenever the use of a laxative medicine is indicated, use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They act in harmony with the "Discovery," and assist its action by purging the bowels of foul accumulations.

The Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company, in its circular for the week, has the following: "Tuesday, being Decoration Day, there were no sales in the market, but on Wednesday, with moderate offerings, the market started out very brisk and prices were very strong at last week's quotations. Many of the sellers were of the opinion that prices were some higher, especially for the low and medium grades, which bring from 4 to 8 cents, while the best grades were about the same. There were very few rejections, prices being satisfactory to the sellers.

The market started on Thursday with some larger offerings and while the prices in the first part of the day were fully up, there was an inclination on the part of the buyers to become more careless, and this caused some fluctuation. Still, prices were sufficient to give some margin to the country speculators, and the rejections were not large. With very limited offerings on Friday the market remained very firm.

"As many anticipated the low grades and mediums are the selling tobacco, and will probably be the entire season, as the manufacturers do not show much disposition to purchase fancy grades, as they have changed their system of manufacturing somewhat and are using the mediums and lower grades to fill their requirements. There is some purchasing for foreign export at present, and we are credibly informed that considerable tobacco will be required to fill the contracts now taken, which places a strong competition on our market, but being of a medium class of tobacco it will not affect the best grades, but will hold up the lower grades.

"The reports from the country are very flattering in regard to the setting of the crop, and with continued favorable weather there is no doubt there will be a good crop set.

"We anticipate a good market through the month of June, as past years' experience has taught us that June is one of the most favorable months of the year for the sale of tobacco."

MISSOURI MINING REGIONS.

A Former Resident of Mason County Writes of the Boom at Joplin.

JOPLIN Mo., JUNE 1, 1899.
Rosser & McCarthy, Proprietors Bulletin, Mayville, Ky.—Gentlemen: Please find enclosed $2 as I am behind with my subscription for last year $1.50. You can give me credit for the rest. I expect to be a subscriber to the BULLETIN as long as I live. Joplin is the most prosperous city in the West. It is the Klondike of Missouri. Hundreds of houses are going up in every direction, and good ones, with modern improvements. Rents are high and not an empty house or store in the city. Hundreds could be rented if they were built. Every one that has a spare room could have it occupied at a good rent if they wished.

Joplin has over 90,000 inhabitants, and is still growing, and over 6,000 school children. The city is full of strangers, and the hotels are crowded with New York, Boston and Eastern capitalists. The Keystone Hotel is building an addition of over 100 rooms.

The mining output has averaged per week over a quarter of million dollars since Jan. 1st, 1899, and there has been one or two rainy days in every week. A great many mines have been sold to Eastern parties, at big prices. A deal was consummated yesterday for one hundred thousand dollars to Colley & Company of Boston. Top prices for zinc ore this week is $4.50 per ton. Our banks are full of money. Mineral lands and city property are changing hands every day.

The greatest mining camp on the globe is in Jasper County, Mo., and the development of its riches is yet in its infancy. For the last year it beat the Klondike and also the Cripple Creek, and this year it far surpasses its last year's record. The mines are going deeper here and more of them, and time saving machinery is being used. The result will be a large increase in the output, and new record for a year at a mining camp.

There has never been a camp opened where there were so many chances for a poor man. Land can be leased or bought cheap and produce ore and make money. All the land is underlaid with mineral, and the product is so rich and plentiful that it is being investigated by capitalists from all over the world. Next year big companies will have charge of many mines, and the product will be wonderfully increased. We are sold for W. J. Bryan and free silver, Missouri will give an increased majority in 1900. Hoping you a prosperous and happy life, and that you will stand firm in the future, as you have in the past, for true Jeffersonian Democracy. I remain yours truly,

E. D. PICKETT.

REV. J. M. EVANS preached Sunday at Kenney, Bourbon County.
